A Note on Safety

Parents, we ask that you remind your students that in the morning, once they have entered the building they are not allowed back out. During the school day they are allowed to leave during lunch (with your permission) and at dismissal unless they attend the afterschool. In the wake of the Avonte Oquendo tragedy we have tightened the rules. Please advise your students to get what they need from stores or for food prior to entering the building. This is only for the safety of our students.

Thanks!

Marguerite
