eBulletin February 19, 2015

Dear Parents,

The Division of Family and Community Engagement sends the following message:

You are invited to attend an upcoming Education Council Information Session. These information sessions are great opportunities for parents to learn more about Education Councils and their important role in the city's education system.

Event information and registration is below. Download the flyer here.

As an active parent in your school community, we encourage you to learn about this opportunity to lead and advocate for all children in your district. In addition, we ask you to invite other parents to apply. Applications for Education Councils are being accepted at NYCParentLeaders.org now through March 11th.

Best Regards,

The Division of Family and Community Engagement
