6. One (1) white-out pen
7. One (manual) pencil sharpener
8. Four (4) Marble Mead composition books (100 pages each) (Reading, Writing, History, and one backup for when you run out of space)
9. Three (3) solid colored, sturdy, double -pocket folders (Reading, Writing, History,)
10. Post-its: One package of large, rectangular post-its, one package of medium sized square post-its, one package of small post post-its, one package of post-it flags.
11. One pack of 4x6 colored notecards

*The items listed below are not required but would be extremely helpful to have in the classroom:

- One (1) roll of paper towels
- One (1) box of Kleenex tissues (rectangular boxes)
- One (1) box of Clorox wipes
- Hand pump sanitizer
- Water bottle with labeled name

Special Notes:

1. Gmail account so that students can access google docs and communicate with teachers and peers
2. Regardless of how we feel about cell phones and their place in schools (later conversation to be had) we do find it helpful (IF your child has a smartphone) for students to have the following apps on their phone:
 - Pupil Path
 - Newsela
 - Merriam Webster Dictionary
 - iBooks
