Dear Rising 7th Graders,

We look forward to meeting you in September! We know from Lindsay and Alie what great readers you are and we invite you to keep up your enthusiasm for reading over the summer. Please complete the summer reading challenge below and get ready to grow even more as readers next year. We can't wait to get to know you!

Happy Summer Reading,
Carrie and Alena (7th Grade Humanities Teachers)

Over the summer, please visit your local public library or favorite book store and select at least:

- Four books to read before you return to school:
 - Two fiction books
 - One non-fiction book (This can be narrative or informational)
 - One book of your genre choice
- Submit a book log that includes:
 - Title and author
 - Start and end date for each book you read
 - The number of pages in the book
 - Did you find the book to be easy, just right, or challenging?
 - Would you recommend this book to a classmate? Why or why not?

Here is a list of suggested books. You can read titles from this list, but you don't have to! The most important thing is that you choose books you feel excited to read.
