Teacher quote

"Having taught Daniel for two years has been an absolute joy for me. He is someone who has grown so much as a student and as a person over his time at SOF. He is bright, charismatic, and someone who worked extremely hard to become his own powerful and empathic person. I am sure he will go forward and continue to create paths for himself in his future. He will be dearly missed by me and many of the SOF staff, I'm so excited for him and where he will go next. - Ms. Whittemore
