Teacher quote

"Jacob is delightful. He has a wonderfully weird sense of humor and is always totally authentic. He is also extremely kind, modest, and open-minded. I've seen him defend students who don't get the credit he knows they rightfully deserve (without them even knowing), listen with an open heart to different perspectives, and share the challenges that he faces with vulnerability and openness. I will miss him, but I am excited for him to embark on the great adventure that I'm sure he will have in college!" - Ms. Murphy
